Dean, Collinsworth School of Performing Arts

California Baptist University

The Collinsworth School of Performing Arts at CBU exists to “inspire students to the highest standards of craft and character, preparing them to impact the world through careers in the performing arts.”

As one of the largest and most comprehensive performing arts training centers in the country, the Collinsworth School offers degrees in worship arts, music education, music performance and pedagogy, theatre performance and musical theatre, commercial music, and studio/live production.

Of the 250+ performances and worship events our students produce each year, the largest and most spectacular is A CBU Christmas.
(<http://www.cbuchristmas.com>)

This grand, one-of-a-kind music theater experience includes a cast of 400+ CBU students and faculty and attracts more than 15,000 attendees each year — all centered on using the performing arts to creatively and clearly communicate the story of Christ’s birth and its significance through the lens of the Great Commission.

We pray this piece, specially arranged and orchestrated for this production, will bless your church and community as you use it for His glory.

If you have questions about how we might partner with you to help you achieve your academic goals at the undergraduate or graduate levels, please reach out to us at NARRATOR/SOLOIST: It truly was a wondrous night on that first Christmas, when Jesus, our Redeemer, stepped into the darkness of this world and brought with Him the Light of Heaven. But that was not the end of the story. Oh, no. For the Child born in Bethlehem would grow and shine the Light of God wherever He went—healing the sick, forgiving the sinner, lifting the brokenhearted, and proclaiming a kingdom of love, truth, and life.

Yet those threatened by this Light tried to extinguish it. He was betrayed, beaten, and nailed to a cross as though He were guilty. But even death itself could not extinguish the Light of the world. For after three days He rose again, triumphant over sin and the grave, and His light now shines for all who believe.

And before He returned to take His rightful place at the right hand of the Father, Jesus gave this charge to His followers: “Go and make disciples of all nations, and carry this light into every corner of the earth.” And so, for over 2,000 years His light has spread, crossing oceans and continents, breaking through walls and barriers, bringing hope to every people, tribe, and tongue. Even now, the same Light shines for you. For all who will receive Him, He gives the right to be called children of God.

(Music begins) This is the true meaning of the season. This is the hope of Christmas. This is the mission, the Great Commission we carry until the whole world truly sees the Light of the world.
