“Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it.”

PROVERBS 22:6 (KJV)

This familiar scripture, taken from Proverbs, is an easy segue into the concept behind the new WordKidz project, Psalms & Psongs, from Christy and Daniel Sensen. One of the most powerful things we can do for our kids is to be sure they are grounded in a strong scriptural foundation. Teaching our kids God's Word – in this case, specifically, the Psalms – is so important to how we apply that wise, scriptural directive to “train up a child.”

Make it FUN—one of the most important ways to get kids excited about learning scripture is to make it fun...and make it easy! A great way to do that is by creating new, modern songs inspired by the Book of Psalms that kids will be eager to sing! Christy and Daniel Sensen have created a wildly-fun, musically-engaging project that brings the Psalms to life in a fresh, new way for young worshippers. Perfect for Kids Choir, Children's Church and Children's worship services, you can also use it as a tremendous teaching tool to help your kids connect with the scriptures and learn some of the wonderful words and Biblical concepts found in the Psalms. With the supplementary Bible lessons and activity book (available in downloadable format at wordmusic.com), this will become one of the most valuable kids ministry tools to come your way in a long time.

Available with a brilliant, super-fun, high-energy DVD accompaniment that you can use as a performance track for Kids Choir concerts, or use it as a sing-along tool in your next kids service...either way, you'll be sure to love this fast-paced, musically innovative project from your friends at WORDKidz, and from creators Christy and Daniel Sensen!
