Foreword

I've been involved in worship planning for 25 years. My first ministry opportunity came during my junior year of college when I got a call from a local church planter who was looking for a worship leader. We met each Sunday in an elementary school cafeteria. Fortunately, my pastor had a very musical family. He played acoustic, his oldest son played drums, his daughter played bass, and I led from keys. I also recruited a friend of mine from school to come and sing with me one Sunday. She kept coming back and I was so glad. She's actually been singing with me ever since because I married her! A few years later, that same church planter performed mine and April's wedding ceremony.

I can still remember my first advent season as a worship leader. At that point in my life, I had only sung Christmas carols in a somewhat traditional setting with piano and organ, but I knew that I wanted to include some of those familiar carols during our advent worship services and that I wanted to include our worship band and worship team. (Thankfully a few more singers had come along by that point.) I remember sitting in my dorm room with a hymnal, playing through some of my favorite carols and figuring out ways to make them work with a band and worship team.

That's a really long way of saying that I've basically been working on this project for 25 years! I've taken a few orchestration classes since I sat in that dorm room, so I'm pleased to share that these arrangements will work in a worship band setting and with an orchestra as well.

I was recording The Hymns Project, Vol. 2 several months ago when a worship pastor and friend of mine said that Volume 3 should be a Christmas project. I ran the idea by Daniel Semsen and he said, "Go!"

I said, "Go where?"

And he said, "Go home and get started right now so we can release it this year!"

And I said, "Yes sir, Daniel, sir!"

Ok… it may not have gone down exactly like that, but some of that story is true. It didn't take long to find a few fellow worship pastors who were willing to help me think through the best carol options for this project. I'm grateful to all seven of them and love the final song list.

As it was with the first two volumes of this series, all of these songs are set in stand-alone arrangements. Medleys are great, but I love getting to sing more verses of these wonderful hymns than a medley can offer. Another consistent feature in this series is the scripture resource. Obviously, there are many scripture options that support these songs. I just wanted to give you some ideas to get you started. Sometimes I read these scriptures aloud, sometimes I ask the congregation to read with me, and sometimes they're just projected on the screen so that the congregation can read and reflect on them during an instrumental section of the song.

I can hardly wait for the advent season to get here so I can use this project! I hope you feel the same way as you listen and read through The Hymns Project, Vol. 3 (Christmas).

Grateful for you all,
—Cliff Duren

SUGGESTED SCRIPTURES

Note from the arranger to the worship leader: The scriptures throughout this project are listed as a potential resource. These passages could be read or spoken from memory during intros and instrumental sections. They could also simply be placed on the screen (or in the bulletin) for reflection during these sections. In my role as worship pastor, I use scripture in this way every Sunday and have found that it impacts the congregation on such a deep level. Obviously, there are many other passages that would work well with each of these songs. These selections are just a starting point for you as you plan and lead worship.

JOY TO THE WORLD!

Meas. 1-8: Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises! Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; the world and those who dwell in it! Let the rivers clap their hands; let the hills sing for joy together. (Psalm 98:4, 7-8 ESV)

HARK! THE HERALD ANGELS SING

Meas. 1-8: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. (Luke 2:14 KJV)

Meas. 53-60: But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. (Galatians 4:4-5 ESV)

THE FIRST NOEL

Meas. 1-8: For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. (Luke 2:11 ESV)

Meas. 66-73: Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you. So I will bless you as long as I live; in your name I will lift up my hands. (Psalm 63:3-4 ESV)

O COME, O COME, EMMANUEL

Meas. 1-12: Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (Isaiah 7:14 ESV)

IT CAME UPON THE MIDNIGHT CLEAR

Meas. 1-10: For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:6 KJV)

Meas. 45-53: Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. (Isaiah 9:7 KJV)
