Arranged by Robert Sterling (ASCAP)

The image shows the first system of a musical score for the song "Snow" by John Williams. The score is written for Soprano (S), Alto (A), Tenor (T), Bass (B), and Piano (P). The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked "Flowing (♩ = ca. 76)".

The vocal parts are as follows:

- Soprano (S): The first line of music is a whole rest. The second line is a half note G4, followed by a half note A4, and then a half note B4. The lyrics "Snow," are written below the notes.
- Alto (A): The first line of music is a whole rest. The second line is a half note G4, followed by a half note A4, and then a half note B4. The lyrics "Snow," are written below the notes.
- Tenor (T): The first line of music is a whole rest. The second line is a half note G4, followed by a half note A4, and then a half note B4. The lyrics "Snow," are written below the notes.
- Bass (B): The first line of music is a whole rest. The second line is a half note G4, followed by a half note A4, and then a half note B4. The lyrics "Snow," are written below the notes.

The piano accompaniment (P) is written in the bottom staff. It begins with a whole rest, followed by a half note G4, a half note A4, and a half note B4. The lyrics "Snow," are written below the notes. The piano part includes a series of sixteenth notes in the right hand and a series of eighth notes in the left hand, creating a flowing accompaniment.
